HONGKONG, THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1881 THE CHINESE-AMERICAN

TURBUTE

The Shanghai Courier devotes a few remarks to the consideration of the Im-Per Emeralda, at 3.30 p.m., on Monday, migration Treaty lately formulated the Special Commissioners from the United States to Peking. In the course of his remarks, our contemporary says :-The stump orators in speaking of the reciprocity that is alleged to exist between China and the United States, lay great stress on the fact that whereas the Chinese are admitted in unlimited humbers to trade or reside in any part of America, Americancitizens, the British, and indeed all foreigners, are restricted to a few ports in China. Why is this, ask these inflammable orators? Is this reciprocity ! Considered by itself it is not; but when viewed in relation to another important fact we can understand The usual hours will be observed in closing that if anything the foreigner has the the Mails, &c. advantage of the Chinaman in so far as the reciprocal principle goes. Americans and foreigners in China live under the jurisdiction of their own Governments, and are not subjected to the control of the Chiness. the 4th April, with Mails to and Every British subject and every foreigner through the United Kingdom and residing in Shanghat or any of the treaty Europe vid Brindigs; to the Straits ports, lives under the same conditions as if Settlements, Batavia, Burmah, Ceylon, their nation had conquered Ohina. The Poking. In all probability facts Remains same concession for her nationals residing in foreign parts before she opened her ports, Verther the Captain, the Agents, nor what a fearful power she would have exparts of the British dominions, and then there might have been occasion for the distribes of Kearney and anti-Chinese agitators.

The expression of opinion here credited to the "stump orators" of the great Republic is one that has been free quently advanced by those who have devoted more attention to these ters than the writer in the Courier appears to have done. Probably our contemporary was unaware of the existence of

Anson Burlingame, of the suggestion which that Envoy's atterances often made of "stump oratory," or of the celebrated Treaty which takes his name. Those who do remember what the Burlingame Treaty was expected to accomplish by its authors and advocates, will in some measure understand the views then entertained as to reciprocity and the manner in which that reciprocity has since been carried out. The real point, however, involved in reciprocity, as laid down in these columns, was this. Instead of going back upon the Burlingame Treaty, and doing a thing so utterly un-American as to apply Protective laws to immigration into the U. S. A., the Government should have insisted upon the same freedom of acce-s into China being grapted to their citizens as that accorded by the United States to all classes of Chinese subjects. This would have made the reciprocity an accomplished fact, whereas it has hitherto been a mere flourish of the pen upon a diplomatic document, and indeed was an empty flourish of words from their first utterance The 7th article of the Burlingame Treaty fairly illustrates the amount of reciprocity conceded by that instrument. Look at it :- "Citizens of the United States shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Government of China; -(the italics are ours)-"and reciprocally. Chinese subjects shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Government of the United States," etc. This imperfect reciprocity again forces Goods per Glenorchy undelivered after upon the attention the necessarily arbitrary rule of extra-territoriality. Upon the assumption that Chinese laws are as good as American or English laws, and that the right of extra-territorial jurisdiction should not be confined to the Western Powers of civilisation, how is it that Western students have not flocked to Peking "to enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Goverument of China"? Although, as we have said, nothing can justify a great and free country like the United States in imitating China in its exclusiveness, 4 p.m. - Brisbane leaves for Sydney and it is sheer folly to drag in the question of extra-territoriality as affecting the subject in any way. The impossibility of permitting the subjects of civilised countries to become amenable to semicivilised jurisdiction is beyond all

On the subject of Opium, and the ridiculous stipulation in the new treaty in regard to that dring, the Courser is much more intelligent. After laying it down very forcibly that Opium is as

But on the other hand the trade is a profitable one, and supplies the means of a livelihood to millions of our Indian subjects, and as an American critic observes "it is a trade recognised by the Chinese Government who levy and collect regular duties and allow transportation freely under the Chinese flag, and opium is encouraged more or less as an object of local taxation." But leaving this consideration out of the question, the stipulations which prohibit American citizens importing opium into China and which impose the same restrictions upon Chinese traders towards the United States, is simply ridiculous. The Americans have comparatively speaking nothing to do with the opium trade which almost entirely in the hands of the British, and they, therefore, promise that which means nothing. They agree to abstain from a traffic, in which they have no concern, but, perhaps, they think to injure British trade prospects in this article. Besides this, the clause is ineffective in touching Americans in China, for (as contemporary remarks) if they wished to engage in the opium trade, they could employ foreign clerks, instead of American and do the business in their name, and through them. The whole clause will prove most disastrous to American shipping in Chinese waters. To quote the words of contemporary, America will give up the whole local carrying trade, coast, and river, to English and German shipping. subsidizes the vessels of other nations the amount of the freight-money on opium which is sufficient in the close competition

As we have all along contended, the Opium traffic must be dealt with by moral agencies, because, however much we may deplore the evils wronglit by alcoholic liquors and this narcotic strug they cannot be satisfactorily met egislative enactment. If any one were to propose the abolition of the spirit trade in England, that man would be laughed out of Court. But when th same is said of the Opium trade in Chins, those who apply the argument to this part of the world are put down as un-Christian and immoral. So fo as the United States Treaty is concern-

To those who know anything of the progress of high class musical art in the Colonies or in India during nearly a life-time past, the name of Carandini needs no recommendation. The Company make its first appearance here this time. It is needless to say that they have been highly spoken of in Australia. For many years past every word and phrase of compliment has been worn threadbare in writing their praises.

THE third programme of Hudson's Surprise Party was presented last night to an enthusiastic audience, which was smaller than it would have been, but for the inclement weather. The audience, by its good-nature and its willingness not only to appreciate (a tael being equal to 5s.,) everything that was artistic but to laugh made up somewhat by its earnestness for what it lacked in strength of numbers. The first part of the entertainment was in the orthodox form of the Christy Minstrel grouping: the jokes were very well told, and there was an air of originality about them which made them all the more toothsome morsels. Mr Hudson and Mr Holly are both splendid corner-men and manage to infuse a very large amount of fun into their parts without too much extravagance April last year another was on the stocks. and without the slightest tinge of vulga-Some of the songs in the first part were remarkably well sung; the best were hands, all Chinese. The works are under those by Miss Maven ("Still I love thee,") and by Miss Burton ("Little blue eyes,") the latter being the gem of the evening. Mr Hudson was funny as usual in his songs "Don't tell my father," etc., while Mr Glover in "Somebody always at home," carried the audience completely with him, and Mr Holly's "Susan Jame" kept the house in Poers of laughter. "Scenes at Wilson's Circus," an amazingly nonsensical, laughshie sketch, concluded the first part. A shaste and beautiful spleotion, piano and violin, opened the second part of the programme, the Misses de Gay being the executants. Hudson's song and dance on stilts, "The She Giraffe," was withcent doubt the greatest his that has been made since the Company arrived by any member of it and will well bear repetition. It is ridiculous enough to satisfy the greatest lover of side-splitting laughter. Miss Burton and Miss Ada Mayen then charged with unlawfully and by force de-

That "Jack" when on shore will occasionally exceed the bounds of moderation as understood by landsmen is, perhaps almost a necessity, but the universal good humour exhibited by the Russians, the care with which they refrain from any conduct calculated to annoy the people, and the almost entire absence of fighting and disturbance, are certainly worthy of all praise. We only hope sailors of other nationalities will not allow their behaviour when on liberty to present an unfavourable contrast to that of our present visitors. Our opinion is not affected by what occurred in a notorious grogshop in Sakaimachi on Wednesday afternoon. If Japanese amuse themselves by striking a sailor who is too much under the influence of the vile trash they sell to protect himself, it is only to be expected that the man's friends will retaliste. If the matter results in the grogshop-keeper, his runners and hanverson, all getting a sound beating, we, at all events, have no sympathy to waste on them. Complaints to the native authorities in cases where sailors are ill-used by the owners of the drinking dens which over-run Japanese ports are uscless. Our readers will no doubt remember in this connection the unprovoked and brutal assault upon an rated. He died at about one o'clock this these wretches, and the utter futility of the attempt made to secure the brute's punish gent. UNLAWFULLY ENTICING A BOY. In case No. 4. Chan Alam and Lai Avir were convicted of unlawfully and by fraud enticing into this Colony, a boy named Chan Ayun for the purpose of selling him.

You, Chan Alam and Lai Ayip, have been found guilty of having unlawfully and raudulently enticed into this Colony a boy eleven years old named Chan Ayun for the ourpose of sellinghim on the 22nd Feb. 1881, and also that you did by fraud detain the same boy within the Colony for the purpose solling him. In this case the boy was coming back to his home from school in the streets of Fatshan beyond Canton, when you Chan Alam his elder brother enticed him to a tea-house, where you gave him tea and then took him in a boat to another place there the second prisoner met you, and ou both took the child to Canton and by teamer thence to Hongkong. Here you both through an associate offered the child for sale, but you then failed, and you Ayi took the boy in a boat for the purpose of taking him to a steamer starting for Singanore, but your conduct was so suspicious that Cheng Cho Yi, the boat-woman, tool you back to the praya and gave you in charge to the police. At the Central Police Station your story was so plausible that you both got off; you persevered in your bject and the child was offered for sale at $50 in a public manner in a public shop. Fortunately Wong Man In, one of the active agents of the Chinese Society for the suppression of kidnapping, was present, and he caused you to be arrested, and the guilt o each of you has been clearly proved. This case, whilst it exhibits the disgraceful attempt by a brother to sell a younger brother, resents two satisfactory facts, first that a Chinese boatwoman handed one of these prisoners to the police and that afterwards an agent for the Chinese Society to suporess this class of crime caused-the arrest and conviction of these prisoners. These facts are indicative of the public mind tending to treat kidnapping as a crime against society calling for active suppretsion. The sentence of the Court on you, Chan Alam, is that you be kept in penal servitude for three years. The sentence of this Court on you, Lai Ayin, is that you be MR Wm. I am about to send my Envoy with my offerings, and it seems as though myself were about to gaze on the Heavenly countenance; so do I rejoice in the rising light of sun and moon and breath of strife put down for ever. May I be enabled to receive Your favours without end by walking in the same path; and transgressing never; unworthy to glance at Heaven or to gaze at the Holy Man. I wait in most earnest expectation. Besides this letter I have entrusted to my delegate a list of the tribute offerings to be given to your Majesty."

THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication modified in certain details. THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance.

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish, new or unpublished details concerning the matter in band. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete . for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Keview. Address China Review, Hongkong.-Northern

Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- " This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years npon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say | Queen's Road Central. nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable : and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Uhinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshuess of style; and an account of the career of .the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating-to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its/predecessor in the field, and that the China Hevier may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intend-

Local Delivery.

1. All correspondence posted before 5 p.m. on any week day for addresses in Victoria will be delivered the same day, and generally within two hours, unless the delivery should be retarded by the Contract Mails.

2. Invitatious, &c., can generally be delivered within Victoria at the private houses of the addressees rather than at places of business, if a wish to that effect be expressed by the sender, otherwise all correspondence is invariably delivered at the nearest place of business.

8. Boxholders who desire to send Circulars, Dividend Warrants, Invitations, Cards, dro., all of the same weight, to addresses in Hongkong, Bangkok, or the Ports of China and Japan, may deliver them to the Post Office unstamped, the postage being then charged to the sender's account. Each batch must consist of at least ten. 4. Boxholders may also send Patterns to the same places in the same way. En-50 velopes containing Patterns may be wholly closed if the nature of the contents be first exhibited or stated to the Postmaster General, as he may consider necessary, and approved by him. Printed Circulars may be inserted in such Pattern Packers.

Money Order Regulations.

1 - Money Orders are exchanged with the Inited Kingdom, New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia and Port Durwin, the Straits Settlements, Western Australia, and (except at Shanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also isaues orders on Shanghai, and vice versa.

2 -Small sums may be remitted between the other Porta by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent. for cashing them.

3.—Many Money Orders are supplied to residents at the smaller Ports in this way. An application for an order* is filled up. and is enclosed with a stamped, directed. and unscaled envelope to the Postmaster at the nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cheque, postage stamps, or other equivalent of cash, and a little margin should be left for variations of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by first opportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications in time, as the Money Order Offices close some hours before the departures of the mails.

4.-No order must exceed £10, or $50. or include any fraction of a penny, nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same person, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the day , and paid at the rate of the day when the advice arrived.

The commission is as follows :-Orders on the United Kingdom. Up to £2........... 18 cents. . £5 ..... 36 ,, £7...... 54 , £10......72 " Local and Intercolonial Orders. Up to $25 or £5 ..... 25 cents. ,, $50 or £10 ....50

5.-Lists of Money Orger Offices in the United Kingdom may be consulted at Hongkong and Shanghai.

6.—Names must be given in full (except when there is more than one Christian name) but the name of the Payee need not be given if the order be crossed (as cheques are crossed). It can then be paid only through a Bank, and may afterwards be specially crossed to any Bank. 7.-No order can be paid till the Payer has signed it in the proper place. An order our be transferred to another office on payment of an additional commission. In case of loss of an order, necessity for stopping payment, or the like, application should be made to the nearest Money Order Office for instructions. 8 .- If the order be not presented within six months an additional commission will be charged; if not within twelve months. PARCELS.-The public is reminded that, the money will be forfeited. When the order is once paid no further claim can be untertained.

9.—No order can be paid until the advice relative to it has been received.

Made out on a printed form which is supplied Local Orders on Shanghai are drawn at 2 per cent premium in all cases. A dollar rate for drawing on the United Kingdom is in force at Shanghai.
